1. APPROPRIATIONS: Amendments to 'minibus' target modified salmon, ocean planning, ethanol

Measures that would block the Food and Drug Administration from approving genetically engineered salmon, bar funds being used for ethanol infrastructure and repeal the Dodd-Frank Act are among the amendments filed on the $128 billion appropriations "minibus" currently on the Senate floor. Republicans may also try to strip all funding for ocean planning with a broad amendment that environmentalists say would send oceans management backward.
